tie, to the Eaſt by Muſcovy and the Lake Pipus, to the Weſt by the Baltick Sea; and comprehends the Diſtricts of Alentaken, Wirland, Harland, Jerve and Wieke.

The Capital City of the Diſtrict of Alentaken (extending from the South to the North, betwixt the Lake Pipus and the Finland Bay) is Narva, commonly call'd the Gernean Narva (to diſtinguiſh it from the Suburbs on the other ſide of the River, inhabited by Muſcovites) Situate at 60 Degrees Weſt: It has borrowed its Name from the River Nerva, near which it lies, which ariſing out of the Lake Pipus, falls with a very ſwift Current into the Finland Gulph, or Livonian Bay, ſome few Leagues below the City; but that is no ſmall hindrance to the encreaſe of this City is a dangerous Cataract or Water-fall, about a League above it, which obliges the Ships that come down the River Narva to unload thereabouts. The chief ſtrength of this City conſiſts in its two Caſtles, one of which is on the ſame ſide of the River, the other call'd Ivanagorod, built upon an unacceſſible Rock, in a Neck of Land, on the oppoſite ſide, by the Muſcovites, and was taken from them by the Swediſh King Guſtave Adolph, in the Year 1617. At the Foot of this Rock is the Suburb call'd Muſcovite Narva, where the Muſcovites are ſuffered to dwell under the Swediſh Protection. It is ſaid to have been built 1223, by Waldmar II. King of Denmark. In the Year 1558 it was beſieged and taken by that Famous Ruſſian Tyrant Juan Baſilovits, but was retaken by the Swedes 1581. It was in the laſt Age a place of conſiderable Trade, whilſt it remained Incorporated with the Body of the Hanſeatick Towns; but its Privileges being in a great meaſure impared by the Swedes, the Muſcovy Trade was from thence tranſlated to Archangel. To the Diſtrict of Alentaken belongs alſo the Fort of Nieſlot, or New Fort, ſituate upon the River Nerva, near the Lake Pipus.

In the Diſtrict of Wirland are only three places of Note, viz. Weſenberg, near the River Weſenaa, taken by the Swedes from the Muſcovites 1581, Toleborg, and Borcholm.

The Diſtrict of Harland extending to the North and Weſt along the Finland Bay, has for its Capital the City of Reval, being indeed the Metropolis of all Eſthonie.

It is but ſmall, but very ſtrong, being Fortified after the Modern way, though its chief Strength conſiſts in the Caſtle, which is built upon a Rock. It was built in the Year 1230, by Waldmar II. King of Denmark, but in 1347 ſold by King Waldmar III. to Goſwin ab Eck, the then Maſter of the Livonian Order of Knights. After the Muſcovites had conſiderably encreaſed their Empire by the Conqueſts of the Kingdoms of Caſan and Aſtracan, and the great Dukedom of Novagorod Veliki, they left no Stone unturn'd to extend their Conqueſts on that ſide to the Baltick, by making themſelves Maſters of Livionia: The City of Reval finding themſelves moſt expoſed to their Fury, ſubmitted themſelves 1561 to the Protection of the Swedes, and in the Year 1570, and 1577, held out two memorable Sieges againſt the Muſcovites, with prodigious loſs on their ſide; ſince which time, purſuant to the ſeveral Treaties of Peace made betwixt the Swedes and Muſcovites 1591, 1607 and 1617, it has remained in the Poſſeſſion of the firſt. Its Harbour is very convenient, eſpecially for the Muſcovite Trade, which made its Traffick very flouriſhing, from the Year 1477 till 1550, whilſt it was under the Juriſdiction of the Livonian Knights; it being one of the moſt antient Towns of the Hanſeatick Confederacy, and having in concert with the City of Lubeck, the direction of the Northern College belonging to the Hanſeatick Towns, in the once ſo famous City of Novagorod Veliki; but their falling off from the ſaid Hanſeatick League, at a time when the Muſcovites ſoon after became Maſters of Narva, and planted the Muſcovite Trade there, did much abate their Trade. Add to this, that the Government of the City being near the Democratical, their Magiſtrates being not allowed to tranſact any thing of Moment without the Approbation of the Leading Men of the City, and ſometimes not without the Conſent of all the Free-men in general, the Swediſh Kings looking upon this as dangerous to their Governenty, have found means to diminiſh many of their Priviledges granted them in former times by the Livonian Knights. It was antiently a Biſhops See, but ſince Lutheraniſm has been Introduced, the Eccleſiaſtical Government is Adminiſtred by a Conſiſtory and Superintendant. ſeveral Profeſſors, who Read and Teach the Liberal Sciences. Not far from this City, about half a League from the Sea-ſhore, is to be ſeen the Ruins of a once ſtately Monaſtery, Founded about the beginning of the XV. Century, by a rich Merchant of this City, and Dedicated to St. Bridget: It conſiſted both of Men and Women, and the Book which contains the Foundation of it acquaints the Reader, that already in thoſe Days the Fryars and Nuns were ſo ingenious as to entertain a ſecret Commerce by certain Signs of which there is a kind of ſmall Dictionary affixed at the end.

The Fort Badis, belonging to this Diſtrict, lies upon the River Aſſa.

The Diſtrict of Jerve, being an Inland Country, contains the Caſtle of Witten or Weiſſenſtein, Upperpalen and Leu, places of pretty good ſtrength.

Neither has the Diſtrict of Wicke more than four places of any Note, viz. Hapſal, near the Bay of Bothnia, once in the Poſſeſſion of the Danes, under their King Frederick II. but was taken by the Muſcovites 1575 and in ſix Years after recovered by the Swedes; Lode, Leal and Wicke.

II. The Province of Odepoa borders to the Eaſt upon the Lake Pipus, to the North on the Rivers Fela, Pernaw and Embec; to the Weſt, on the Bay of Livonia, and on the South it is bounded by the Province of Lettie. Its chief City is Deopt or Torpat; by the Muſcovites call'd Jurigorod, being ſeated betwixt the two Lakes Worzero and Papus, upon the River Embec, a pretty large City, the Remnants of its antient Stone Buildings and Walls, being ſufficient Teſtimonies, that this place was none of the leaſt conſiderable in thoſe Parts, it having been formerly alſo a Biſhops See. It was in the Poſſeſſion of the Muſcovites till 1230, when the Maſter of the Teutonick Order conquered it by the Sword. In the Year 1558, that famous Ruſſian Tyrant Ivan Baſiterits, advanced againſt this City with a formidable Army, which ſtruck ſuch Terror into the Inhabitants, that they ſurrendred immediately; but the Year 1571 proved fatal to them; for a certain Livonian Gentleman, call'd Reinold Roſe, having laid a deſign to deliver the City from the Muſcovite Slavery, by putting it into the Hands of Magnus, the then Duke of Holſtein; and the Plot being diſcovered before it could be put in Execution, the Muſcovites took a fatal Revenge upon the Inhabitants, without the leaſt diſtinction of either Age or Sex. About ten Years after, viz, 1582, by Vertue of a Treaty of Peace made betwixt the ſaid Ivan Baſilovits, and Stephen Bathor, King of Poland, it was ſurrendred to the laſt, with the remaining part of Livonia. Not long after the Swediſh Duke Charles of Ludermanland took from the Poles, and theſe again recovered it from the Swedes 1603, till in the Year 1625, James de la Gardie, the Swediſh General, took all again from the Poles, ſince which time it has remained conſtantly in the Poſſeſſion of the Swedes, whichw as confirm'd to them firſt by Vertue of the Truce made betwixt the two Crowns 1635, and afterwards by the Peace of Oliva. King Guſtave Adolph Founded an Univerſity there 1632; but it is frequented only by a few Finlanders, the Livonian Gentlemen rather chuſing to ſend their Sons to Foreign Univerſities, eſpecially in Germany and Holland.

Next to this is the City of Warbeck, near the Mouth of the River Embec: The Fort of Ringer, Kanneleks, Odepea, a ſmall Town noted for nothing elſe, but that it has communicated its Name to the whole Diſtrict: The two ſtrong Forts of Niewenhuſen and Marienburgh, the firſt on the Borders of Muſcovy, the laſt upon the Lake Pipus. Tarneſt was a goodly Town whilſt in the Hands of the Muſcovites; but being taken from them by the Poles, they quite demoliſhed it, when they were forced to quit it to the Swedes. Fellin and Lemſal are alſo Places of no great Conſequence; but Parnaw, as it was formerly a Member of the Hanſeatick League, ſo it was very flouriſhing in Trade, which is however much decayed of late, unleſs it be in Wheat, of which they Tranſport a conſiderable quantity every Year. It is not very large, but pretty compact, built of Wood, after the Muſcovite faſhion; it is ſituate upon the River Parnaw, (from whence it has got its Name) which riſes out of Weiſſenſtein upon the ſmall River Beca, and being in its Paſſage increaſed by the two Rivers Fela and Perukcia, diſembogues in the Baltick, not far below this City. The Poles were the firſt who Conquered it from the Muſcovites, but Eric XIV. King of Sweden, Conquered it 1562. Three Years after the Poles regain'd
